

Enter The Void

Emptiness, sad, spent loneliness the eternal void how to fill the unfillable need?
The unconditional love of parents gone forever into the abyss taken away so young never experienced.

The loneliness of the world sad & empty
looking to be filled kindred spirits, love, laughter moments shared the love of a child all these help but the deep chasm remains.

A wound never to be healed only by acceptance of its' very existence can its' grip be loosened on the unsuspecting spirit and the opening to Mother Earth, Goddess, Angel & her brethren only these can bring true healing and fulfillment to the damaged Soul.
