

The Helpless Healer

struggling with failure overburdened, frustrated no light shines through in guidance and wisdom how to help the souls of those most treasured?

This is their path
not yours
perhaps they are not yet ready to embark on this next leg of their healing journey

Remember the healer is only the guide pointing the way through the dense forest only the seeker can choose the way the healer enlightens & nourishes but the journey is not her own.
