

Universal Gifts

My sweetest friend soul sister, lover of light I give you the gift of true sight nurture and care for it, for it is your Divine right to partake & behold it don't worry about earthly restrictions they matter not in this realm Do with it as you wish knowing that each time you use it to benefit another it strengthens you it gives a clear mirror into your own soul Divine Truth is its' message Thoughts may not enter here for this is a gift of blinding beauty & light all who see its' magic will be drawn to you but you alone may choose who receives its' benevolent spirit choose wisely for all the Universe is fed by the bestowing of its' gifts.
